QUAN HOWELL

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Quan Howell first began singing in his grandfather's church, Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist. He would later sing with The James Cleveland Youth Chapter and the Bibleway Church of our Lord Jesus Christ.

His professional break came in 1995 when he auditioned for, and later joined, the Grammy-winning Sounds of Blackness. In addition to his recordings with Sounds of Blackness, Quan can be heard on movie soundtracks for "How Stella Got Her Groove Back," "Down in the Delta" and "The Apostle."

Quan has also appeared on stage in productions of Tyler Perry's "I Know I've Been Changed," "I Can Do Bad All By Myself," and "Madea's Family Reunion."

DAVE POWERS

For over 38 years, two-time EMMY® Award winning composer and performer Dave Powers has been a vital part of the Columbus, Ohio music scene as a pianist, keyboardist, vocalist, entertainer and educator. Dave has traveled and performed nationally and internationally. Dave is an adjunct faculty member of The Ohio State University School of Music. Considered one of the most successful musicians in the Midwest, Dave manages to win over the hearts of all who hear him perform.

From concerts to clubs and restaurants to corporate events and private parties, his vast repertoire is as diverse as the audience that he entertains. Dave has performed with noted performers such as Steve Allen, George Benson, Rusty Bryant, Buddy DeFranco, Mark Farner (of Grand Funk Railroad), Eric Gale, Terry Gibbs, Ernie Krivda, Wilbert Longmire, Johnny Lytle, 'Blue' Lou Marini (of the Blues Brothers), Joan Rivers, Arturo Sandoval, Grover Washington, Jr. and many others.

In addition, Dave is associated with the Jazz Arts Group of Columbus, and performs with the Columbus Jazz Orchestra. For the past six years, Dave has been hosting a jazz concert series at the Clintonville Woman's Club called "The House Jazz Concert Series."
